PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Take the first step towards achieving your dreams of earning a qualification from a college or university in Canada. ILSC supports your learning journey from the moment you register. We can help you find the right college or university program to meet your goals, and help you apply. Once you arrive at ILSC, you'll receive a university pathway orientation and our academic advisors can help you choose the right courses to support your learning. Complete two levels of required University Pathway courses and you'll be ready for success in your college or university program!

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE ASSURANCE

ILSC is committed to assuring your success by offering you:

- Academic counselling to help you choose and apply to your partner school
- Online resources to help you practice
- Ongoing monitoring of your academic progress to catch any challenges as soon as they arise
- Partner school tours every session
- Small group tutoring sessions which can be added to your program any time*

*Additional fee applies for students studying 16 weeks or less
